

PAINE-GILLAM-SCOTT MUSEUM

Paine-Gillam-Scott Museum opens for the 36th season on Wednesday, May 7, 2014. Hours are 2 – 7p.m. Wednesdays and Sundays, 1 – 4p.m. through December 17, 2014.

The renovated Calendar Hall will be revealed with the spring opening. Many hours work by a Graphic Designer, Volunteers and Donors resulted in a revised display of the timeline of Clinton County events. The display highlights events starting with the “Beginning of Clinton County” up to 1960.

The limited time special exhibit this year highlights Sports in Clinton County. Artifacts selected for the Exhibit emphasize the bizarre, the historic and some great moments in Clinton County Sports.

A permanent Military Display is new this year in a room dedicated to permanently display photos, documents, and artifacts from Clinton County’s long military history. Some items will be permanently on display and there will also be many revolving exhibits in observance of varying military anniversaries.

Paine-Gillam-Scott Museum will be open during the Mint Festival August 10 and August 11 from 1 – 4p.m. This year the museum will be open for the Christmas Season. More information about these events will be forthcoming.
