

In late April, the city will be constructing street improvements in the park. This is the start of a multi-year project to improve the park streets. Improvements will include the addition of a new asphalt surface and sidewalks. The city will also be adding parking spaces and sidewalk to facilitate the Park Street tennis courts. We're hoping to have construction completed by late May.