

Street improvements will begin again after the Labor Day weekend. The city will be working on the following streets: Emmons, Prospect, Walker Road (near Lansing Street), Steel Street (near the cemetery), and Clinton Avenue (near Walker Road). The streets will remain open during construction. We're hoping to have all of the improvements completed by October 1st.